PARKOUR
EARTH

If you are a passionate member of the parkour community and you want to spend time making parkour more visible, more accessible, and ensuring that we remain autonomous, then we want you to join our team.

Parkour Earth has an Ambassador Team comprising practitioners from all over the world. Our Ambassadors embody the vision, mission, and values of Parkour Earth and play a key role in ensuring transparency and open lines of communication between Parkour Earth and the global parkour community

We are actively recruiting Parkour Earth Ambassadors to serve as moderators for our Discord and the voices of Parkour Earth.
